Important Notice to All Vendors:

The Texas Comptroller's office will be requesting a list of our vendors immediately following the festival to follow up on sales taxes due. Most items sold in Texas are taxable, and the Chamber encourages you to familiarize yourself with the requirements if you do not already hold a Sales Tax and Use Permit. The only exempt items that we commonly see sold at festivals are grocery items not meant to be consumed on site (bottled salsas, jellies, etc.), and information-only booths. If you have not yet supplied us with your Sales and Use Tax Permit number, we will require a letter from you stating that your items are exempt, along with a copy of your driver's license, before we can allow you to set up.

The Chamber is supplying this information as a courtesy to our vendors, and reminds all business owners that they are ultimately responsible for being aware of the laws affecting their business.

For general information regarding Sales Tax and Use Permits, please see the Comptroller's website at:
<https://www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/sales/>

For information regarding exempt organizations, please see the Comptroller Publication 96-122:

For information specifically about sales at festivals, please see Comptroller Publication 96-211:

For questions or more information, please contact the Comptroller's office at (800) 252-5555

Important Notice to All Food Vendors:

The Texas Department of Health Services may be at our Festival checking for Retail Food Establishment permits and, unfortunately, will immediately shut down vendors who do not have a copy of the permit with them. Also please be aware that food may not be prepared in a home kitchen and then brought to the festival for serving but must be prepared in a commercial type of kitchen at a church or school or prepared completely on-site at the festival itself. Temporary permits are $52 and should be requested as soon as possible so that they have time to process your application. Please ensure that you have your Retail Permit with you on the day of the festival. No refunds for lack of permit.

The only exemptions for the preparation location and for the Retail Food Establishment permits are schools, churches, and other 501(c)3 non-profit organizations, and for foods that fall under "Cottage Food" - foods that do not need to be kept hot or cold, such as breads, cookies, jellies, and nuts.

The Chamber is supplying this information as a courtesy to our vendors and reminds all business owners that they are ultimately responsible for being aware of the laws affecting their business.

For more information regarding this permit, please see the DSHS site at:

and look forward to seeing you at the Festival!
